

JUNIOR HIGH HAS FIRST CHARTER

Red Cross Auxiliary Complete.
Capt. S. E. Whitaker to Speak Friday.

The Junior High school is the first school in Hamilton county and also the first school in the state to join and receive its charter in the Junior Red Cross.

Friday evening at the school a patriotic meeting will be held. Capt. Sam E. Whitaker will be the speaker of the evening. A service flag, with 425 stars, representing every pupil in the school will be unfurled.

Each pupil was anxious to become a member of the association. A great many boys and girls ran errands, clerked in stores on Saturdays, washed dishes and sold a number of articles they had made in the manual training department, to earn 25 cents, the amount required to join.

Classes in Red Cross work will be organized immediately. The girls will make pinatones under the supervision of Miss Daniels, domestic art teacher. The boys will make the boxes in which the garments will be sent to headquarters, under the direction of Mr. Peacock, instructor in the manual training department.

Committees for thrift stamps have been appointed in each grade, with Miss Clara Findell and Miss Clara Whipple in charge.

Domestic science classes were opened Monday. Owing to the lack of gas, this department has been greatly handicapped.

Mrs. F. E. Gunn has been appointed one of the teachers of English and history in the school.

CIRCLE NO. 7 SEWS FOR ORPHAN CHILDREN

Circle No. 7 of the First Baptist church, Mrs. W. F. Ruff, leader, met at the Frances Willard Monday afternoon. Mrs. W. F. Robinson conducted the mission study. The subject was "Evangelism and Enlistment."

The leader appointed a committee, composed of Mrs. E. W. Griggs, Mrs. W. H. Fox and Mrs. J. B. Veale, to draft resolutions on the recent death of members and send them to their families.

A number of garments were reported as having been made for the children at the Baptist orphan's home in Nashville. Reports were also made of visits and other missionary work done by the circle. Besides the members present, Mrs. J. W. Wright was an invited guest.

The Missionary Ridge Parent-Teacher association will meet Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 at the school house. A full attendance is desired.

MEN'S CLUB TO HAVE DINNER

The regular monthly dinner and business meeting of the Men's club of the Second Presbyterian church will be held Wednesday evening at the church.

Prof. W. R. Johnson, principal of Chattanooga High school, will speak.

CONSERVATION CLUB MEETS

The Conservation club will meet Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Fourth District Grammar school. Any one interested in gardening or poultry raising is invited to attend.

Hal B. Mosley is chairman. Other officers are Wade Farrar, president; R. M. Childress, secretary; Mrs. H. F. Eskin, treasurer.

MRS. JOHN R. LUSK HOSTESS OF AFTERNOON TEA

Mrs. John R. Lusk entertained with a silver tea Monday afternoon at her home on West Seventh street. The guests, numbering forty, were members and friends of the Woman's Missionary society of the Second Presbyterian church.

The home was prettily decorated in spring flowers and potted plants. An impromptu program was given by Mrs. E. M. Newell, Mrs. G. M. Ellis, Miss Mary Ellen Ivins and Miss Lillian Bessley.

Refreshments, consisting of tea, wafers and mints, were served. Mrs. J. D. Savery, Mrs. Claude Milligan and Mrs. Myrtle Joyce assisted Mrs. Lusk in caring for the guests.

TRIBUTE TO NOTED MOVING PICTURE ACTOR

William S. Hart, who is the kind of movie actor that makes you want to stay and see the picture through twice, has added another friend to his many admirers in Chattanooga. Perhaps this friend of "that man who looks you straight in the eye" has expressed just what every other one of his admirers would like to express.

When seen on the screen William Hart is always with the same old friend, his horse. In fact, he has ridden into fame in the movie world with his horse.

Recently Hart appeared on one of the local screens in an evening play. When he made his first appearance in this outfit the audience had to laugh, but he took his part in the same old way, that makes the audience forget he is ugly.

These verses were written by a Chattanooga woman who witnessed the play:

You are wonderful, William S. Hart;
My idea of the "fellow who can."
You are built for an heroic part,
Such an ornery, ugly, big man.

You are human and living and mean,
With your badness and goodness combined,
For you go just as far on a screen
As you go when unselfish and kind.

Your face is so long like a horse
We know you have horse-sense galore,
When you do those great horse-riding stunts,
You are all you appear and some more.

You're a jolly good boy, Will S. Hart!
Whenever you come this way,
Just buy a small ad in the paper,
And I'll meet you wherever you say.

The Woman's Missionary society of the St. Elmo Methodist church will meet with Mrs. Will Martin Wednesday afternoon.

The East Chattanooga W. C. T. U. is planning an elaborate program to be given Wednesday evening at King Memorial church, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. The public is invited.

EDWIN A. ERNEST IN HOSPITAL IN FRANCE

Edwin A. Ernest, son of Mrs. A. C. Ernest, of Lansing street, writes home from "somewhere in France" that he has been in the hospital for two weeks, where he underwent a slight operation. He is with the engineers' corps, Company B, 502d battalion.

Letters are received from the young man at regular intervals by his mother, but, like a number of other boys overseas, he complains that he does not get his letters from home, having received only one in several months. He is well known here and has many friends who are always interested in news from him.

One letter which came very timely to his mother was dated Dec. 3, and was received by her on Christmas Eve.

The Woman's Missionary society of Chattanooga church will meet Wednesday afternoon at the church. A literary program will be given.

A meeting of the Ridgedale W. C. T. U. will be held Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. W. J. Hodges, 9 Orchard street.

HANK OF WOOL FOR ADMITTANCE AT TEA

Large Social Event to Be Given by Patriotic Organizations Friday.

This war has brought about many changes in the accustomed social activities, and features that were never heard of before are now the most appropriate things for social functions, so long as they pertain to a dignified war significance.

The very latest development in these entertainments is to be given by the National League of Women's Service and the War Work Council, of which Miss Zella Armstrong and Mrs. J. T. Lupton are respective chairmen of entertainment.

The event has been announced as a wool tea, and is to provide wool for the many knitters who have exhausted their supply. Hanks of wool or pieces of silver with which to buy it will be the card of admittance.

The wool tea will be given at the Hotel Patten Friday afternoon, and in keeping with the patriotic spirit the walls will be hung with a rich frieze of American flags and George Washington's picture will be conspicuous among them.

The ladies identified with it are to wear colonial costumes, and great crowds of visitors are expected to come and go between the hours of 3 and 6. It is barely possible that some out-of-town guests may be present.

MRS. HIRSCH IN DENIAL Attorney for Asa G. Candler, Sr., Refuses Further Word on Blackmail Case.

Atlanta, Feb. 19.—Mrs. Margaret A. Hirsch, who is held in the Fulton county tower by a joint indictment with J. W. Cook, charged with attempting verbal blackmail on Asa G. Candler, Sr., refused Sunday to accept bond offered by her husband, H. H. Hirsch, who returned to Atlanta Sunday morning from Pittsburgh.

The only statement Mr. Hirsch would make since his arrival in the city was

For Burning Eczema Greasy salves and ointments should not be applied if good clear skin is wanted. From any drugstore for 35c or $1.00 for extra large size, get a bottle of Zemo. When applied as directed it effectively removes eczema, quickly stops itching, heals skin troubles, also cures burns, wounds and chafing. It penetrates, cleanses and soothes. Zemo is a clean, dependable and inexpensive, penetrating, antiseptic liquid. Try it, as we believe nothing you have ever used is as effective and satisfying.

Paris Fashions Bring No Sombre Hues; Waist Lines Once More Normal

Although one is prone to think of all of France being in widow's weeds, or mourning, still the eastern papers are running their usual Paris fashion letters at this season, and in millinery parlance, speaking of the latest "Paris models."

A statement is made by a New York Journal that at certain milliners has continued her visits to Paris uninterrupted by the war, and besides the latest models, brings back the news that Paris is full of Americans, though they are not wearing the great American general perhaps has too much common sense to let his men stay over-long in the French metropolis.

The same authority may be quoted as saying that the afternoon hat has come back, trimmed with ribbons and flowers in the greatest profusion; also that marine hats are very much used. Thus far it must be acknowledged that the local dealers have had some forewarning of these things from Paris, as both the marine, georgette and muchly trimmed afternoon hats are already being displayed in the millinery rooms here. The high crown, sailor and poke shapes are also displayed for street wear.

Easter Comes Early. Apparently the frigid weather conditions have had no effect upon the ushering in of spring styles, for the winter goods that still hold a place in the show window, if one is to believe the figures, are greatly marked down, and the new spring garments are—well, greatly marked up, and have the right places.

The collection of spring and summer models exhibits a wide range of novel features. The slim silhouette and the waisting rule again. The waistline is normal or in some models perhaps somewhat below. Large girdles are used, with loose hanging ends at the sides, formed without any bow.

Church trimmings found. Among the trimmings, the latter arranged in large squares. Large designs in open work on mousseline de sole or lawn are carried out by embroidering with Anzora wool, the effect being like snowflakes on silk or metal in Gothic designs in the effect
